

2024.1.5 Notice Regarding Appointment of our New Partner

It is with great pleasure that we announce the appointment of Daimon Punjabi to Partner effective January 1, 2024.

Since its inception in 1998, Unison Capital has invested in 37 companies across five Japan-focused funds, successfully advancing its investment model one transaction at a time. With our Japan-focused funds evolving towards a sector-focused strategy, Daimon's contributions concentrating on the consumer industry, a core focus sector for Unison, have been essential in this evolution.

Now with eight Partners in Japan, Unison Capital strives to solidify its position as a leading private equity investment firm in Japan by leveraging its investment experience, along with deep local network accumulated over 25 years.
