

2026.08.03 Notice Regarding Fraudulent Investment Solicitations

Unison Capital has become aware of fraudulent investment solicitations made via social media platforms, including LINE, by parties impersonating Unison Capital and its officers or employees.

Neither Unison Capital nor any of its officers or employees conduct investment solicitations via social media. Any such solicitation is entirely unauthorized and has no affiliation with Unison Capital.

If you receive an investment solicitation via social media from an individual claiming to represent Unison Capital or its officers or employees, please exercise extreme caution and do not respond.

If you receive any such suspicious communication, please do not transfer funds or disclose personal information. We encourage you to contact your local police station or the appropriate authorities as necessary.
